- Week 1 (June 4th- 8th)
10:30AM-12PM Animals Make Art Too Holly Aiken Animals come in all kinds of patterns, colors, shapes, sizes, and textures. This week, we will be exploring everything that makes animals unique and how they make the world a more exciting place using everything from paints to fabric to clay.
- Week 2 (June 11th- 15th)
10:30AM-12PM Stop, Drop, and Draw Livy Snyder Students draw a scene from a movie or book, fill in the blanks of sentences, and illustrate everyday walks to create story lines. We will use watercolor, acrylic paint, and a variety of drawing materials.
- Week 3 (June 18th- 22nd)
10:30AM-12PM An Art World of Picture Books Elizabeth Brosha Make, paint, explore, and discover art based on favorite picture books. Chicka Chicka Boom Boom, Firefighter Frank, Swimmy, Leap Back Home To Me, and How to Catch a Star are just some of the favorite books we will read as a base to create beautiful masterpieces from your little artist.
- Week 4 (June 25th- 29th)
10:30AM-12PM Animal Symbolism Heather Beemer Explore culture and history with us as we make art based on Native American and Egyptian stories and myths!
- NO CLASS WEEK 5 (JULY 2-6)
- Week 6 (July 9th- 13th)
10:30AM-12PM Shoot for the Moon! Shelly Doyle Come explore space by doing projects about all the aspects of the great unknown! Stars, the moon, and maybe even aliens!
- Week 7 (July 16th- 20th)
10:30AM-12PM Learning Science through Art Holly Aiken If you think science is boring, I'm here to change your mind! We are going to paint without using brushes, make rainbows without rain, and even levitate objects!
- Week 8 (July 23rd- 27th)
10:30AM-12PM Exploring the Senses Holly Aiken By the end of this week, you will have artwork you can smell, hear, touch, see, and taste!
- Week 9 (July 30th- August 3rd)
10:30AM-12PM Bugs, Bugs, Everywhere! Holly Aiken What is more exciting than spending a whole week learning about the world of I So many bugs, such little time! Play-dough, paint, water, and so much more!
