If you would like to have your work juried to be at the Fuller Lodge Art Center after the August deadline please apply for the Affordable Arts Show.

Application Guidelines:

- For the jury, bring in a filled out FLAC inventory sheet, a signed contract and 4 to 5 samples of your work (include representation of all types of work you would like in the gallery shop).
- Include information about your artwork materials and processes, for example:
  - Clay: Firing process, is it lead free, microwave/dishwasher/oven safe?
  - Wearable Art: List the type of fabric, cleaning instructions, etc.
  - Prints of artwork (larger prints or cards): List the reproduction method, type of ink and paper, etc. Provide information about your original artwork.
  - Jewelry: Specify type of stone/metal and other materials, technique, etc.
- Prices must be kept at $250 or below.

Email any questions to Lauren Sherwood at gallery@fullerlodgeartcenter.com

General Guidelines and Policies:

- The Art Center is a consignment shop, meaning we do not buy outright.
- Artists make 65% of the retail price and will be paid monthly for sales.
- Each Artist whose work is accepted is guaranteed to have some pieces on display, but the extent and manner is at the complete discretion of the Gallery Shop.
- Inventory brought in by an artist must be consistent with the type of artwork juried into the Art Center for that artist. If an artist wants to bring in a different type of artwork, they must go through the jury process again.
- Artists may not arrange or personally restock their displays.
- Sales will be reviewed at 3 and 6 months to determine retention as a Gallery Shop Artist.
- If you are also selling off a website, such as Etsy or another similar site, or participate in any Arts and Crafts Fairs (including ones hosted by FLAC) we ask that you keep your prices consistent with what you're asking in the Gallery Shop.
- The Art Center does not cover the shipping costs of any items shipped to or from our shop.
- Please understand that you CANNOT take items from the shop to supplement your inventory in other places you have your work for sale.
- You must be able to keep a consistent supply of inventory available to the shop.
- Preference will be given to local and regional (New Mexico) artists.
