Online Registration: Registration for Summer Art Camp will be done primarily online. Paper registration will not be accepted this year. If you need help with registering your child, please contact Chris, Class Coordinator at classes@fullerlodgeartcenter.com, or call the Fuller Lodge Art Center at 505-662-1635, to schedule an appointment with Chris.

Cancellation Policy: If you call to cancel no later than one week prior to the start of class, the Fuller Lodge Art Center will reimburse you your registration fee, less $10. For any cancellations made during the week the class is scheduled (less than 7 days prior), we cannot offer a refund.

Medical Release: Every child must have a completed and signed medical release form on file at the Art Center prior to the first class session. The medical release form is available at registration.

Drop-off and Pickup: Children can be dropped off at the Art Center no earlier than 15 minutes prior to the start of the session and picked up no later than 15 minutes after the close of the session. No one is available to watch the children either prior to or after the art camp sessions.

Additional Information regarding registration, can be found on our website: <https://fullerlodgeartcenter.com/summer-art-camp/>

We will send you an informational email at the time of registration, and before your scheduled camp dates.

Week 6 (July 8-12)

9 am to 12 pm: Basics of Shakespeare (David Daniel)- If the Bard has ever intimidated thee, then thou shouldst take this course! Students will learn how to read and perform classic works of Shakespeare, as well as begin to create their own plays written in the iconic style of the great Bard. Expand your horizons and learn why these fantastic theatrical works have endured even to the modern day. Prepare and perform a soliloquy or monologue by the end of the course. Share this oft-misunderstood passion with friends and family. Learn the sickest burns of the 16th century! Verily.

1 pm to 4 pm: What's Your Perspective? (Diane Stoffel)- Learn the skills of drawing 3-D objects in 1- and 2-point perspective. Make cityscapes look real and give dramatic depth to abstract drawings.

Week 7 (July 15-19)

9 am to 12 pm: Fiber Arts Ornaments (Samuel Buelow)- In this class, we will explore a number of fiber arts techniques including needle felting, Temari balls, embroidery, and needle tatting. We will use these techniques to make small projects that can be used as ornaments or jewelry.

1 pm to 4 pm: Fairy Tales: Creative Writing and Performance (Samuel Buelow)- Most of us grow up with fairy tales, but the genre is not just for little kids. In this class, we will go beyond Disney; examine fairy tales, folk tales, and urban legends; write our own tales, and learn about and practice storytelling.

Week 8 (July 22-26)

9 am to 12 pm: Typography of Today (Marshall Jansen)- This class will focus on how to put that personal touch into projects and bring out your style into the everyday alphabet to make things from stylized personal cards to presentations that pop.

1 pm to 4 pm: Movie Making Magic (Jacob Spill)- Wouldn't you just love to star in a movie created by you and your classmates? Well, prepare yourself for a week of lights, camera, action! We will be creating movie props, set design, and of course, acting. At the end of the week, we will have completed a short film ready for you, your family, and friends to enjoy. (Note to parents, mild violence and use of prop weapons will be used in the movie. We will be making a Sci-Fi B-Movie)

Week 9 (July 29-August 2)

9 am to 12 pm: Basic Theatrical Design (David Daniel)- Help Build STAR WARS sets!: For any student that loves the theater, but hates the stage, this course will cover the basics of theatrical design and stage management through practical construction of props and small set pieces for the upcoming production of Star Wars: Verily A New Hope, the Shakespearean retelling of the beloved science fiction film classic. Explore the techniques and tricks used for setting the stage for any production, big or small. Perfect for visual artists and those interested in learning to direct theater.

1 pm to 4 pm: Draw "en Plein Air", Paint Outdoors (Diane Stoffel)- Learn how to paint a landscape outdoors! We will start with practicing skills in class that will make your painting a great success, then move outdoors to sketch ideas for your painting. By week's end, each student can complete a finished landscape painting in acrylic paints. Painting area is restricted to Fuller Lodge grounds and Ashley Pond.
