

Fuller Lodge Art Center
2132 Central Ave.
Los Alamos, NM 87544
505-662-1635

4th-6th Grade
2020 Summer Art Camp

Week 1 (June 8-12)

9 am to 12 am: Let's Become Contemporary Artists (Stephanie Rittner)- Contemporary Art is art made in the present time. It reflects the identity, community, and ideas of artists who make it. Let's be inspired by contemporary painters like Frank Stella, Jeff Koons, Iris Scott, Kehinde Wiley, and become contemporary artists of Los Alamos!

9 am to 12 am: Body Art (Jacob Spill)- We will be painting each other's faces and daring tattoos on each other's arms with a nontoxic non-permanent marker. Please make sure your child isn't allergic to face paint.

1 pm to 4 pm: Fiber Arts Fun (Stephanie Rittner)- Love working with felt, fabric, yarn, and beads? Let's have some fun! We will sew, weave, make pillows, wall hangings, and more!

1 pm to 4 pm: History Adventures (Aimee Slaughter, Los Alamos Historical Society)- Explore our local history with crafts, hands-on activities, and collaborative art! We'll also create our own board games time-traveling through Los Alamos history. We'll show off our collaborative art on Saturday, join us at the Los Alamos History Museum for Community Day.

Week 2 (June 15-19)

9 am to 12 pm: Let's Get Abstract (Heather Beemer)- Silhouettes, self-portraits, scribble-art, scrambling the Master's, etc. Please bring a fun, black-white photo of yourself on 8.5 x 11 paper.

9 am to 12 pm: Dungeons and Dragons for Beginners and Experts (David Daniel)- Adventure into a fantastic world of swords and sorcery, mist and monsters, dungeons and DRAGONS! Students will learn everything they need to know to create and play the iconic game Dungeons and Dragons (Fifth Edition). Learn how to make unforgettable characters, how to construct thrilling adventurers, and maybe even how to slay a Dragon.

1 pm to 4 pm: Everything Duct Tape (Eben Bold)- In this class students will learn the fundamentals of how to work with duct tape and receive instruction on how to make a variety of duct tape crafts. Such crafts will include wallets, flowers, animals, and sushi.

1 pm to 4 pm: Star Wars Creations (Jacob Spill)- Enjoy a class of fun art projects for all the young Jedi and Sith. We will be building lightsabers as well as constructing other crafts from a galaxy far, far away.

Week 3 (June 22-26)

9 am to 12 pm: Let's Take a Trip to Europe! (Shelly Doyle)- In this class we will be exploring Europe! We will visit iconic cities such as Paris, Italy, Switzerland and Great Britain! See how much of our art today has European influences and visit many iconic landmarks!

9 am to 12 pm: Wonderland (Emma Jo)- Dive into your imagination! Mosaics, collages, painting, and creating unique and diverse pieces that represent your own fantasy world. What would your ideal universe look like? Would there be people? Only animals? Maybe a world in which we're stuck in one period of time? You get to decide and create it!

1 pm to 4 pm: Puppets (Dee Homans)- Make a variety of hand puppets, design scenery and put on a show!

1 pm to 4 pm: Paint Explosion (Jacob Spill)- Learn to paint just like the old masters! HA!!! Yeah right!!! This class is all about getting messy and exploring with paint media. Make sure you don't wear your favorite Minecraft T-shirt because you might get paint on it!

Week 4 (June 29-July 3rd)

9 am to 12 pm: Making Art with Nature (Brian Arthur)- Learn to work with the natural world! One main project will be making paper castings of bark from rubber molds directly imprinted from trees and staining them with coffee, tea and juice to make them look like bark. There will be painting projects and one involving weaving to resemble tree roots.

9 am to 12 pm: Zines, Journals, and Broadsides (Deborah Brink)- Strut your stuff as a journalist and graphic artist. Learn simple book making techniques. Create a 'Zine'. Make a poster and other fun adventures with words and art.

1 pm to 4 pm: Folk Art of Mexico and Spain (Ellen Mancini)- Many local artists in New Mexico embrace the tradition of the past such as painting on wood., punching holes in tin, and creating decorative sugar skulls. Learn about the folk art styles of the Mexican and Spanish people who settled here. Create colorful and crafty projects that reflect this wonderful heritage.

1 pm to 4 pm: Wizards, Dragons, and Ghouls (Jacob Spill)- Join us as we make arts and crafts straight from Middle Earth, Narnia, and Hogwarts!

Week 5 (July 6- July 10)

9 am to 12 pm: Stamp It/ Print It! (Deborah Brink)- Learn a variety of stamping and printing techniques using a variety of materials and make fun prints, banners and t-shirts.

9 am to 12 pm: Día de los Muertos (Britton Donharl)- Learn about the history and crafts of the popular holiday, Día de los Muertos. We'll make skeletons, mini shrines, flowers, and skulls in many ways.

1 pm to 4 pm: Get your Sharpie Flowing (Britton Donharl)- We'll explore several projects using sharpies as our medium, creating art like stained glass, tie dye, and drawing on a variety of backgrounds. If you'd like to supply something to draw on (pencil bag, white shoes, plain mug, etc.), bring it along!

1 pm to 4 pm: Mythological Characters, Fairies, and Dragons (Ellen Mancini)- History has given us the gift of mythology. Through myth we were introduced to many characters. Fairy tales have shown us fantasy characters from other worlds. We will select our favorite characters to draw, craft fairy houses and make Pandora's Box and Athena's owl.

Week 6 (July 13-17)

9 am to 12 pm: Artie Party for the Older Kids! (Elizabeth Fisher)- Come play and explore with Mixed Media. Mixed media is combining different art mediums such as collage, paint, sculpture and drawing. We will create paper collages, mixed media grid drawings and craft it up with sewing techniques! The possibilities are endless!

9 am to 12 pm: Love Planet Earth (Emma Jo)- Using recycled and natural materials like cardboard, water bottles, corks, egg cartons, pinecones, leaves, seeds, and twigs to create multi-media works of art that are eco-friendly!

1 pm to 4 pm: Intro to Magic the Gathering and Pokémon Trading Card Game (David Daniel)- LET'S DUEL! Learn the rules and strategies to take your games to the next level. Explore the artistic origins of many of the most popular cards and monsters from the game. Design and draw your own custom cards to play YOUR way. Bring your own decks or use decks provided by the instructor.

1 pm to 4 pm: Be Your Own Hero (Jacob Spill)- Don't wait around for Superman to save the day. You're going to make your own comic!! This class is for the hero in all of us. We will be doing comic illustrations as well as fun superhero themed crafts.

Week 7 (July 20-24)

9 am to 12 pm: How to Plan, Plot, and Publish a Novel (David Daniel)- Calling all young authors! Learn the basics of how to grow a story from an idea to a fully planned book. Students will work closely together to critique and revise one another's work, and to discover the things that make their own story ideas unique. Students will come away with a variety of new tools for tackling the murky path between the blank page and a book on the shelf

9 am to 12 pm: Express Yourself (Shelly Doyle)- We will use paints and other mediums to express our favorite things through our love of art. We will journey into our brains and challenge ourselves to think about what we find interesting and the qualities that make us unique in order to create pieces that mean something special to us.

1 pm to 4 pm: Zoinks! Its Zombies! (Jacob Spill)- Don't fear the walking dead, JOIN EM!!! This class explores the lighter side of zombies.

1 pm to 4 pm: The Seven Wonders (Quela Donald)- We will create art inspired by what we learn about the seven wonders of the world! Each day we will briefly study 1-2 of the great wonders of the Ancient world. Students will be given the options of drawing, painting, or building something that is related to what we learn that day!

Week 8 (July 27-31)

9 am to 12 pm: Creature! Creature! (Deborah Brink)- Make fanciful creatures and giant bugs using collage, Papier-mâché, and other techniques.

9 am to 12 pm: Fun with Fiber! (Samuel Buelow)- Discover the world of fiber arts as we explore a variety of techniques using yarn, wool, and fabric.

1 pm to 4 pm: Dungeons and Dragons for Beginners and Experts (David Daniel)- Adventure into a fantastic world of swords and sorcery, mist and monsters, dungeons and DRAGONS. Students will learn everything they need to know to create and play the iconic game Dungeons and Dragons (Fifth Edition). Learn how to make unforgettable characters, how to construct thrilling adventures, and maybe even how to slay a Dragon.

1 pm to 4 pm: Collage Creations (Jacob Spill)- Use old magazines and comics to construct album artwork for your favorite band, bizarre looking animals, and internet memes.

Week 9 (August 3-August 7)

9 am to 12 pm: Movie Making Magic (Jacob Spill)- Wouldn't you just love to star in a movie created by you and your classmates? Prepare yourself for a week of lights, camera, action!! We will be creating movie props, designing sets, and acting. At the end of the week we will have a completed short film ready for you, your family, and friends to enjoy.

1 pm to 4 pm: Cardboard Crusaders (Jacob Spill)- Create armor and weapons out of cardboard.