Group Show: Los Alamos Museum of Art

May 28-July 24th

Portal Gallery: Los Alamos Museum of Art

Come see this awesome show featuring work curated by the Los Alamos Museum of Art! The Los Alamos Museum of Art is a newly formed non-profit organization created to preserve and present the cultural heritage and art of Los Alamos through exhibits, programs, and connections to the science and arts of our local and regional artists and art collectors.

Show Opens: Friday, May 28th

Show Closes: Saturday, July 24th

Traveling Pants

July 30th-September 25th

Portal Gallery: Kristen Honig

Pants: Where did they go? What did they do? While we all worked from home in our PJ bottoms what mischief did our pants get into? Go wild and make your pants, or the pants we provide, into a masterpiece! Collaborate with a group of friends or colleagues, focus in on your own creation, or ship the pants to a friend on the other side of the world!

Strings Attached

October 1st-November 13th

Portal Gallery: Marina Archuleta

Nearly 400 years ago John Donne wrote “No Man is an Island”, referring to how the world and beyond is all interconnected. The world is an increasingly smaller place where true isolationism is an impossibility and networks and followers more and more often mark success. Connections need not be negative- families, found families, beloved pets, nature- explore these connections and both the joys and responsibilities they bring.
